

Watch Chain

Crassula muscosa

- I'm a super unique succulent with tiny green leaves tightly stacked around my long stems. As I grow, the bottom of these stems will become brown and woody.
- As part of the Crassula family, I'm especially hardy and can withstand cooler temps.
- Plant me in well-draining soil, water me a couple times a month, and give me partial shade... I'll be happy!

